Blue Service-Star Banner

Designed in 1917 by WWI Army Capt. Robert Quessner, the service star banner is traditionally hung in the window of the home of a person who has a family member currently serving in the U.S. military. That person can be a son, daughter, wife, husband, etc. The blue star represents one family member currently in service; a gold star on a banner represents a family member who was killed during service. Seeing these banners today in windows of homes reminds every one of us that war is not something that happens overseas on far-away lands, but is something that affects every street and neighborhood in our country. Banner is 8 x 15" with crossbar and a gold cord and tassel. Also available in 3 x 5' flag.

POW / MIA Flag

In 1971 Mrs. Michael Hoff, an MIA wife and member of the National League of Families, saw the need for a symbol of our POW/MIAs. Mrs. Hoff found Mr. Rivkees, Vice President of Annin & Company, who felt sympathetic and along with Annin's advertising agency designed a flag to represent our missing men. After receiving the League's approval the flags were manufactured for distribution. Other than "Old Glory", the League's POW/ MIA flag is the only flag ever to fly over the White House.
